Service Area	Coin-Ops
Circulation	2
Children's	1
BR/Gen (second floor)	1
Reference (second floor)	2
Total	50

NOTE: Over the course of the contract, quantities and locations of coin-ops may change. While most of the coin-ops will remain in their original locations, the Library reserves the right to add, remove, or relocate coin-ops as necessary. If this happens, the Library Business Office will notify the vendor of the changes. Sub-contracting is allowed for cash collection.

The library needs a consistent routine of cash collection from copier/printer devices, and requires a regular, timely and secure process of collection with a reduced number of individuals handling and accounting for a substantial amount of coins and small change.

Sub-contracting is allowed for cash handling service and cash collection. However, fine money in locked money bags is one of the items that the couriers will be picking up from the branches to deliver back to the Main Library on Goodwood Boulevard, so the safes on the vehicles are a requirement.

The Library does not want the responsibility of counting the copier coins.
